INTRODUCTION

This collection was donated in 1976 by Rev. J.R. Kovalevitch and additional archival material was presented to the Public Archives by Mrs. Kovalevitch in 1978. Most publications and periodicals were kept in the collection except those published in Canada which were transferred to the National Library.

The publications, Christian Catechism (Winnipeg, 1904) and Dukhobori V Zapadnoi Kanadi (Ottawa, 1907) were transferred to the Rare Book Room, National Library.

The newspapers, Ranok, Kanadyskyi Ranok, Evanhelskyi Ranok, Vira i Nauka and Soiuz were transferred to the National Library Newspaper Collection. Photographs were transferred to the Arts and Photography Division.

A modified Library of Congress system of Ukrainian transliteration is used in this finding aid, however, some names, titles and other words previously transliterated according to other systems were left in their original form.

This collection is of special interest to researchers in the history of Ukrainian Canadians in particular Ukrainian church history and the Ukrainian Evangelical Movement in Canada.

The John Robert Kovalevitch Collection was organized with the financial assistance of the Canadian Institute of Ukrainian Studies, University of Alberta, which co-sponsored the Ukrainian Archives Internship Program at the Public Archives of Canada for 1986.

BIOGRAPHICAL NOTES
JOHN (IVAN) ROBERT KOVALEVITCH (1896-1978)

John Robert Kovalevitch was born on 4 March 1896 in Strutyn Vyzhnyi near the town of Dolyna in Western Ukraine. He emigrated in 1911 to South America but returned to Europe in 1914. Due to the outbreak of the First World War, he emigrated to Toronto, Canada.

In Toronto he worked at various occupations, took technical courses and studied the English language. In Toronto he joined the Ukrainian Social-Democratic Party and became interested in the Evangelical Protestant Movement. In 1922 he was a delegate to the first Ukrainian Evangelical Conference in Rochester. At this conference the Ukrainian Evangelical Alliance was founded with John Kovalevitch as head.

He studied theology at Bloomfield Theological Seminary and College in New Jersey. In 1924 he continued his studies at the University of Manitoba in Winnipeg which he completed in 1929. At the university he was head of the Ukrainian students' society. Ordained a minister in the United Church of Canada, he preached in various cities and from 1947 edited the Ukrainian newspaper, Kanadiiskyi Ranok for eleven years. He published over 200 hymns in Knyha Khvaly (1955) and also a biography of Ivan Franko.

He visited Europe and the Soviet Union in 1934-35 and again in 1969.

John Kovalevitch was an executive member of the Ukrainian Canadian Committee for many years and supported Ukrainian cultural and historical projects.

He married Natalia Budnyk in 1946 and they had one son, John. John Robert Kovalevitch died on 7 January 1978 and was buried in Winnipeg.
