P R E F A C E

This guide is intended to serve as a very practical directory to the cultural and organizational life of Ukrainians in the city of Toronto. Since the Ukrainian Torontonians constitute about ten per cent of all Ukrainians in Canada their activities have a considerable impact on the Ukrainian Canadian community at large.

This is the second edition of this directory, incorporating many changes and additions, which was first published in 1973 by the Ukrainian Canadian Committee of Toronto. The Committee, which is the major coordinating body for most Ukrainian organizations in Toronto, plans to publish an expanded directory and history of Ukrainian organizations of Toronto in the future.

This directory excludes mainly commercial Ukrainian firms and a few others which may be located in the Toronto Telephone Directory.

It would be appreciated if corrections, suggestions and additional entries were forwarded to the compiler care of the Ukrainian Canadian Committee, 2395-A Bloor Street West, Toronto, M6S 1P6.

I would like to acknowledge the assistance of Dr. P. Hlibowych, Past-President, Dr. O. Sokolsky, President, and Dr. W. Muz, Secretary, of the Ukrainian Canadian Committee.

SCHOOLS and UKRAINIAN STUDIES

SECONDARY SCHOOLS

When Ontario high schools in September 1972 introduced Ukrainian language courses as an accredited subject it was the fourth Canadian province after Saskatchewan, Alberta and Manitoba to do so. Now grade 11 and 12 classes are offered at four Toronto secondary schools. These are Humberside Collegiate Institute, Parkdale Collegiate Institute, Royal York Collegiate Institute and Runnymede Collegiate Institute. For a number of years there have also been two evening courses offered at Western Technical Commercial School in Conversational Ukrainian and also a Survey of Ukrainian Culture, taught by George Duravetz,

UNIVERSITY

Ukrainian language and literature were taught at the University of Toronto for the first time in 1949 by Dr. Julian Genyk-Berezowsky at night classes. In 1952 Professor George Luckyj joined the faculty of the University of Toronto and from 1955 to 1961 he served as Chairman of the Slavic Studies Department. At the present time three courses are offered in Ukrainian language and literature plus a course in alternate years on Problems of Ukrainian Literature and Culture. There are two Ukrainian professors, Dr. George Luckyj, Dr. Danylo Struk and Dr. Bohdan Budurowych teaches Slavic bibliography. The Slavic Languages and Literature Department of the University of Toronto is located at 21 Sussex Ave. at Huron Street (978-4895) in the shadow of the new 14 storey Robarts Research Library.

York University has offered Ukrainian language and literature courses since 1970 taught by Romana Pikulyk, and this year by Myroslav Shkandrij.

COMMUNITY COLLEGE

George Brown College of Applied Arts & Technology has offered a Course For Teachers of Ukrainian in the winter terms of 1974 - 75, 1975 - 76 and is also planned for 1976 - 77. This is a part time course one evening a week of three hours with tuition of about $30.00. It is given at 507 College Street by Dr. E. Burstynsky, O. Kopach and T. Horochowych. Enrollment is early in September. Phone George Brown College, Language Courses Director, at — 967-1212 or the Ukrainian Canadian Committee at — 762-9427.
